NORTHERN LIGHTS GALA TO SUPPORT INCREASED STUDENT ATTENDANCE

On October 22, the Victoria Gold Yukon Student Encouragement Society (VGYSES) hosted its annual charity gala and successfully raised $90,000 to benefit Every Student, Every Day, which works to directly support community-led projects that increase student engagement and attendance throughout the territory.

"This is a milestone year for our charity as we celebrate our 10th anniversary and with this gala fundraiser, Every Student, Every Day is well on its way to our goal of having $400,000 available to directly fund student engagement and attendance projects designed and led by Yukon schools, school councils, community groups working with Yukon learners and Yukon First Nations governments for the 2023-2024 school year," says VGYSES President Tara Christie.

"Once again, we are overwhelmed by the generosity of the Yukon community in supporting Every Student, Every Day," says Victoria Gold President & CEO John McConnell. "These dollars will make a big difference in supporting student attendance projects for Yukon children and youth."

Since its establishment, Every Student, Every Day has donated more than $1.5 million to directly support more than 180 projects designed to help Yukon schools and communities with initiatives that help promote and improve regular school attendance and a greater sense of belonging at school.

"Thanks to the generosity and commitment of our donors and community partners, we are excited what the next decade will bring as we work together to support increased student attendance in the Yukon," adds Christie.

The Every Student, Every Day project application form for Yukon student engagement and attendance projects to be implemented in the 2023-2024 school year will be available in early 2023 and is open to schools and school councils, community organizations and Yukon First Nations to apply for project funding. Yukoners are also encouraged to save the dates for next year's Every Student, Every Day fundraisers: the Victoria Gold Charity Golf Tournament on July 15, 2023 and the Annual Gala on September 23, 2023.
